Educator / Entrepreneur

ABOUT ME | MISSION

Angela T. Germany Barnes is a believer in the Lord Jesus Christ, a wife, mother, grandmother, leader, and entrepreneur. Born and raised in the William Penn Projects and once a teen parent, she has defied the odds and built a legacy rooted in faith, perseverance, and purpose. In 1999, Angela discovered her calling in childcare and founded Children of Purpose STEM Academy East and West in Chester, Pennsylvania. For more than 25 years, she has championed the belief that every child—regardless of zip code—deserves access to excellent education, resources, and opportunities. Today, Angela walks in the fulfillment of Proverbs 31:28 and lives by Romans 8:28, embracing each season of her life as both a lesson and a blessing. Her testimony remains: "It's Quite Alright."
